

BIO: Jessica Smith is the former Executive Director of Humboldt Area Center for Harm Reduction (HACHR). She joined National Harm Reduction Coalition in July 2020 as the Community Mobilization Coordinator and provides support to new and existing syringe service programs (SSP), specifically in rural communities throughout California. Jessica received her master's degree in Sociology from Humboldt State in 2018, is a state certified HIV test counselor, and is a co-founder of the Humboldt Harm Reduction Coalition.